CAPTAINS

- Each captain must identify to Serve a co-captain officially. The Co-captain will be involved in team management activities and communications on behalf of the Captain. The Co-captain can automatically become a Captain with no registration once the Captain agreement is over, terminated or subjected to dropping out.
- Captains are to sign each of their players based on seasons they prefer those players to be in. (Please see team management for more details)
- Captains are responsible for attending all official meetings and coordinate on rules and guidelines.
- Captains can be sub-players, sideline captains or star players.

TEAM MANAGEMENT

- Each team must have a minimum of 8 players and a max of 12 players.
- Each team must have a sub setter incase of injury pre and during tournament. The team will not be official without this sub.
- Each Captain will be signing a player agreement with all their players. This agreement will be valid between the Captain and the player on how many seasons the player can be on their team. Once the agreement date is completed, the player has the right to sign with a new team without tryouts or apply as a Captain. If a player contradicts the agreement and decides to leave the team - the player will not be applicable to join a team in an upcoming season. Further to that, the player will have to restart and join tryouts.
- Players on or registered (junior/senior) national team or national club will not be permitted to play.
- All existing players who want to drop out of a team to join a new team and haven't been transferred must enter tryouts.
- Captains who have less than 8 players and don't have transfers or new signed players have to attend the try-outs to select their players and subs.
- No player under any excuse can join a team after a deadline date provided by Serve.
- Players who get injured and cannot perform pre or during tournament is still part of the team as per their agreement.

TEAM STRUCTURE

- EACH TEAM MUST HAVE A SETTER (SET POSITION) BUT MUST SERVE IN ROTATING ORDER
